

EDUCATION

University of Minnesota

Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

1990-Present: Gausman & Moore Associates, Inc.

Mechanical Project Engineer for institutional, commercial, and industrial projects. Responsibilities include project management, planning, design, cost estimating, plan and specification writing, equipment selection and site observations.

1989-1990: TAC Engineering Co. Inc., Minneapolis, MN

Mechanical Design Engineer

1982-1989: Snyder General Corporation / McQuay, Minneapolis, MN

Product Engineer

PROFESSIONAL

Registration: Licensed Engineer, Minnesota No. 18261, DC, FL, GA, IL, MD, ME, MI, MS, NY, OH, PR, SC, VA, WI. LEED® Accredited Professional

Memberships:

- The Society of American Military Engineers (SAME)
- Associate Member, American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE), National and Minnesota Chapter
- Associate Member, American Council of Engineering Companies of Minnesota (ACEC/MN)
- University of Minnesota Alumni Association

Continuing Education:

- Advanced Control Strategies
- ASHRAE 62.1-2004 Ventilation Requirements
- ASHRAE Indoor Air Quality & Commissioning Seminar
- Building Moisture and Humidity Management
- Effective Construction Contract and Field Administration
- Mechanical System Design for Green Buildings
- Variable Speed Pumping